

Members Of The Clergy

Many members of the clergy are familiar with A.A. as a nonsectarian, nondenominational ally in their efforts to help alcoholics to stop drinking and lead healthy, productive lives. They know religious leaders of major faiths have expressed support for the A.A. program; and they are aware that among their own ranks there are those who have found in A.A. the answers to their personal drinking problems

Members of the Clergy have been and continue to be very supportive of the A.A. program. Our fellowship will forever be in debt to this helpline.

For those who have not yet had the occasion to become familiar with the AA fellowship, click on the picture links below. The information is hoped to be a useful introduction to A.A.
